Supreme Court Judgement regarding date of Birth of Central Government Employees

2516. SHRI KAILASH PATI MISHRA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the Supreme Court judgement delivered in Brij Mohan Singh Vs. Priya Brat Narayan Sinha reported in AIR 1965-Supreme Court p. 282, paras 17—20 holding that in actual life it often happens that persons give false age of the boy at the time of his admission to a school, and declared that it would be improper to base any conclusion regarding date of birth on the basis of the said entry, alleged to have been made upon false information;

(b) if so, whether the same criterion, as declared by the Supreme Court in the case, has been followed by Government in determining the date of birth of Central Government employees in disputed cases;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) The date of birth of a person entering service under the Central Government is regulated by the statutory provisions contained in the General Financial Rules, 1963. The Supreme Court judgement, referred to in Part (a) of the Question, was delivered in relation to the age, qualification of a candidate for contesting elections to State Assembly. Since this judgement was delivered in the context of the provisions of Article 173(b) of the Constitution, the criterion given therein does not ipso-facto apply to the determination of the date of birth of persons entering Government service.
